MODERN LANGUAGES

Text Books in the German Languagie-Woodbury's Method with German Woodbury's Reader, Schiller, Goethe, Adler's Dictionary.
Text Boors in the French Language-Fasquelle's French Course, Colloquial Reader, Telemaque, Racine, Paul et Virginie, Charles XII, René Atala, Surenne's Dictionary
Oral and written exercises in both languages throughout the course.

ORNAMENTALBRANCHES
Drawing and Painting.-This department receives liberal attention. Supeior facilities are furnished, under a competent Instructor, exclusively devoted to this department, for the study and practice of Linear and Perspective Drawing, Pastel and Monochromatic Painting, Painting in Oil, and in Water Colors.
Music.-Music receives special attention.
The ladies are allowed to substitute these branches, together with German and French, for some of the higher studies in Mathematies, and for the Latin and Greek.
The classes in Mensuration, Leveling and Surveying, are practiced in the use of the Quadrant and other instruments, and in Plotting.
In the department of Ancient Languages, the classes are practiced in oral and written exercises in Latin and Greek, throughout the Course; and, in the third year, in writing translations from Latin into Greek, and from Greek into Latin. In addition to the books above named, Zumpt's Latin Grammar and Kühner's Greek Grammar are used.
Anthon's Classical Dictionary, Smith's Dictionary of Greek and Roman Biography and Mythology, Ramshorn's Latin Synonyms, Robinson's Lexicon of the New Testament, and Forbiger's Ancient Geography; are recommended as books of reference.
Lectures will be given from time to time in the various departments.
The classes in the First Year of Academic studies have exercises in reading and analyzing Milton, Thompson, and other poets, in connection with a course of familiar lectures on the principles of English Grammar.
A Normal Class will be formed, (when reguired,) and special attention will be given to those who may wish to prepare themselves for the important duties of teaching.
A Biblical Class will also he formed for the benefit of such :ls have the Ministry in view.
Commercial Department.-In this, Lectures on Commercial Law, Political Economy and Mercantile Etiquette will be given. The course includes all that is requisite to the Practical Accountant.

LOCATION.

Wilhansport is one of the most beautiful and healthful places in the State. It has never been subject to epidemics of any kind. Many coming to the School sickly, have returned fully restored. The location is central and School sickly, have returned fully restored. The location is central and accessible from all quarters. The Railroads, now completed, bring us within a few hours ride of Elmira, Lockhaven, Danville, Potteville, Harrisburg, Hollidaysburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York. No more desirable position for a Seminary of Learning can be found.

ORGANIKATION

The School is organized on the most approved plan of the best Institutions of New York and New England. It embraces both sexes, under the same government and instruction. The President and the other members of the Faculty occupy apartments in the building, eat at the same table, and have a constant oversight of all the Students.
The ladies' private and public rooms are entirely separate from the others, and there is no association of the sexes but in the presence of their instructors. The Ladies and Gentlemen have less. freedom of intercourse here than at home.
The happy influence, mutually exerted, in their slight association in the reci-then-room, at the table, and in the public exercises of the Chapel, is to be seen in the cultivation of a cheerful and animated disposition,-in the formaseen in the cultivation of a cheerful and animated disposition,-in the formation of good habits and manners, -in ardent devotion to study, -and in the attainment of high moral character. These with many other valuable results, have established the fact, that the best plan for a School is, according to the evident design of Providence in the constitution of society, on the basis of a well regulated, christian family

ACCOMMODATIONS

The buildings will accommodate (two in a room) about two hundred stu dents. They are of brick, heated by furnaces in the cellar, and supplied with water. The rooms are large and well ventilated. In the entire arrangement of the buildings, great care has been had for the comfort and health of the occupants. The grounds contain about seven acres, affording sufficient room for exercise and play.

BOARDING, ETC

All students from a distance are required to board in the Seminary. By the following list of prices it will be seen that our total charges are quite as low as those of any Institution of like grade in this State; not excepting those schools in which cheap scholarships have been sold. We desire to bring down the cost of education to the lowest point possible, and thus afford to the masses sound, intellectual, and moral culture. Board, including washing, ( 10 pieces, ) room and fuel, is $$ 2.50$ per week.

CALENDAR AND EXPENSES.

The Seminary Year is divided into three unequal terms. Pupils are received at any time. Deduction for absence is made on recommendation of the Faculty to the Treasurer. Bills payable in advance.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

The Course in this comprises all that is taught in any of the Commercial Colleges in this country. Those who are desirous to acquire a knowledge of the Science of Single and Double Entry Book-keeping applied to Retail and Wholesale Merchandise, Commission, Special Partnerships, Manufacturing; Banking and Joint-Stock Business of all kinds, will find as ample advantages here as elsewhere. Particular attention given to Mercantile Forms and Computations.

By due attention a Full Course may be completed in one term of three months.

VACATIONS
There are two Vacations. One of three weeks at the close of the Fall Term, to inelude the holidays, another of seven weeks at the close of the Sirmmer Term.

TERMSOFADMISSION.

1. The Student must be well recommended as to moral character. The School is not designated to be a House of Refuge.
2. Must arrange with the Treasurer, all bills, before attending Recitations
3. Must take at least four studies, unless excused by the Faculty.
4. Minors must deposit with the President, all spending money, to be returned in such amounts as he may think best.
5. Must agree to comply with all the Rules and Regulations of the School
N. B.-Each Student will be considered a member of the Institution, until due notice shall have been given of intention to leave, and permission obtainer of the President.

ROOMS AND CLOTHING

The rooms are furnished with all heavy articles, but the Students must bring their own sheets (for double beds,) pillows, pillow cases, blankets, counterpanes and towels, and find their own brooms, mirrors, coal oil and lamps.
Students should be supplied with warm, durable clothing, heary boots and shoes, an umbrella, and a pair of slippers to be worn while in the building. All artieles of Clothing should be carefully marked with the full mame.

A P P A R A TUS

The Seminary is furnished with a collection of Apparatus, together with full sets of Globes, Maps and Charts, and a Cabinet of Minerals, thus affording facility for illustration and experiment.
DISCIPLINE.

The discipline is mild, but firm and impartial. While every encouragement will be given to the orderly and studious, and due allowance be made for youthful indiscretions, yet the lawless and refractory camot long remain among us.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

Every student is required to attend religious services at the opening and close of school, each day, as well as public worship morning and evening, every Sabbath, at such place as parents or guardians may designate.
N. B.-Each student must be supplied with a Bible, to be read without note or sectarian comment, in the morning and evening services of the Chapel. The whole school read in concert.

LITERARYSOCIETIES
Besides the regular weekly exercises in Composition and Declamation, there are three flourishing Literary Societies in the Institution : the "Belles Lettres," are three flourishing Literary Societies in the Institution : the "Belles Lettres,"
"Gamma Epsilon," and "Tripartite Union,". each of which prepares and reads "Gamma Epsilon," and "Tripartite Union," each of which prepares and reads to the school a paper once a month. About 1700 vols. are in the Societies' to the scho Libraries.

MERITAND DEMERIT
A strict weekly record is kept of all the exercises of the sehool, from which record the students will be graded.

A record of demerits is also kept. Tardiness, unexcused absences from required exercises, and all disorderly conduct will subject the student to demerit marks. Three such marks may bring a private reproof before the Faculty ; six, a reproof before the Ladies or Gentlemen, as the case may be; nine, a public reprimand before the whole school; and twelve may send the offender away. Semi-Sessional Reports are sent to parents when requested.

TO YOUNG MEN

Several steady young men can have employmentin the Institution, and thus meet a large portion of their expenses.
Schools also can be had by Ladies and Gentlemen who desire to teach. Applications are made from a distance for competent teachers.

A WORD TO PARENTS

1. Try to have your children here at the commencement of the term. The classes are then formed and it will be better for all concerned that the student start regularly with his class.
2. If possible, do not call them away during the session. Absence, if only for a few days, disarranges the classes, and is generally the beginning of irregularity on the part of the scholar.
3. Do not allow your children to leave the school before the examinations, unless it can be aroided. Serious inconvenience, to all concerned, often arises from a neglect of this caution.
4. Supply them very sparingl! with spending money. Parents camot be too cautious on this point.
5. Select for your child one of the Lustructors, as a Patron, to distribute his funds. In this way a more judicious use of your money will be made, and your child be kept from thany temptations.
N. B.-These last two suggestions are to be regaried as established rules of the school.

Students not boarding in the Institution, must ohserve the following additioual rules

1. Attend Evening Prayers.
2. Must attend all the Seminary Exercises punctually
3. Must spend the intervals between recitations in the Study Hall.
4. Must account for all absences by written excuse without delày, time and number of recitalions being specified.

万. Must not risit the rooms of hoarders, without permission.
12. No student will be allowed to go a bathing, skating, fishing, guming or riding, without permission
13. The students must not risit the kitchens, dining room, or any other room, except their own, without permission
14. The Sabbath must be strictly observed by :lll. No walking abont, visiting, or receiving of visits, except by friends from home, will be allowed. All must attend public worship twice during the day, at such places as they or their guardians may prefer.
15. No lady shall at any time receire calls from gentlemen at her own room. Friends from a distance can see the ladies in the parlor.
16. The young ladies will not be allowed to leave the Seminary grounds, at any time, without permission: and the gentlernen will be restricted at the discretion of the Faculty
15. No student shall change his or her room. or boarding place, without special permission from the President.
18. No student will be permitted to leave the school, during its session without an express request from the parent or guardian, made to the. President and with the consent of the Faculty.
19. Any student who, without just cause, shall fail to attend the examinations, will be considered as under censure.
20. Permission to be alsent from any evercise most be obtained, if possible, before the absence occur.
21. No student will be permitted to leave any class withom the consent of the Faculty.
22. The Ladies and Gentlemen must not visit each others' appartments, walk or ride together; without permission : nor converse together from the windows.
23. Students from the neighborhood will not be permitted to visit home at such times as will interfere with the recrular exercises of the school
24. Any offending student may be punished, according to the nature of the offence, by private or public reproof, suspension, dismission or expulsion.
25. Students dismissed or expelled, must leave the premises at once.
26. None but students can attend the Society meetinge, unless by express permission from the Faculty.
24. No special meeting of the studente shall be held at any time, without permission of the President.
28. Any temporary prudential regulation for the government of the schoo that the teachers mar sec fit to adopt, shall be equally binding with these By-Laws.
